Our school is located on Gunaikurnai land.

Merry
Christmas

From the Principal

Oh what a fabulous day Thursday was! Our first day time concert was a huge success, with students putting on terrific performances, and many awards being handed out to very worthy recipients. Holding our concert in the amazing Gippsland Performing Arts Centre Traralgon, was also a real privilege for us all, as we enjoyed their state of the art facilities and increased seating capacity, which meant we did not have to restrict ticket numbers. We were so pleased to see how many families were able to come along to enjoy the show, and welcome any feedback regarding the concert, as we make plans for next year.

On Friday we held our Colour Run, which was a wonderful way to finish off the week! Students had a fabulous time participating in the event, and it was great to see everyone so happy to be outside running, walking, jumping, or skipping and having fun with friends. A big thanks to Jarratt for coordinating this event for the school.

End of year reminders
